Part I, Line 2 - Procedures for Monitoring Use of Grants Funds in U.S.

Part I, Line 2 - Procedures for Monitoring the Use of Grant Funds

Initial Screening & Selection

Once a potential grant applicant applies for aid, they are screened by phone or email to evaluate their initial eligibility. Minimum eligibility requirements are 70% or greater disabled, as rated by the VA and verifiable service in the Global War on Terror (GWOT). After the initial screening, a formal written application must be submitted. The application includes a formal application, the applicant's "DD-214" (Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty), photos, and VA eligibility documents. The written applications and documentation are reviewed and verified by the Application Committee. The Board then decides which applicants will be invited to enter the Wounded Hero Home Program. The Board also decides which recipients will receive a cash grant which will be paid toward the purchase of a house, the construction of which will not be facilitated by HAH. Some applicants are initially "deferred" and may be selected later if additional resources become available. At HAH's Annual Gala, Wounded Hero Home Program awardees are the guests of honor and each new recipient receives a symbolic "House Key" in a presentation ceremony. The documentation for the grants is kept at the corporate headquarters in Houston.

Home Building Facilitation

The next stage is selecting the lot and builder for the home. Several communities in the veteran's preferred geographic area are scouted and two to three communities are identified by HAH for lot availability. Ideally, the developer donates the lot in a master planned community. Where no master planned communities exist, HAH endeavors to roll the land (or lot) price into the project price; often a smaller house must be constructed to offset the expense of the lot. Alternatively, the veteran may opt to purchase a lot of their own choice, to be paid for by the veteran. HAH refines the selection based on veteran preference as to which lot works best. HAH then identifies a builder willing and able to construct a home on the chosen lot and obtains a home floor plan that can be modified to meet the adaptability criteria and is within budget. Once the floor plan has been modified based on the veteran's needs, a review occurs with the veteran where additional modifications can be made as needed. Again, the veteran is very involved in this stage of the process. Once the decisions about lot, builder, and floor plan have been made, the veteran is sent a formal offer letter listing the details of their home offer for acceptance. Once the offer letter is signed and returned, the construction contract is executed and the physical building process begins. A "Ground Breaking" ceremony is held on the land. This is described in more detail in Part III of the 990. Where the VA specially Adapted Housing (SAH) grant will be used, VA regulations are followed to ensure adaptations meet strict VA SAH standards. The floor plans are adapted to comply with any applicable VA standards before construction starts. Upon completion, these adaptations are verified by an SAH inspector from the VA. In many cases, the builder and sub-contractors will donate or discount their materials and services towards the overall cost of the house. A component of the construction process is visits by HAH personnel to ensure that the builder and sub-contractors stay in compliance with the applicable standards.

The wounded warrior is also kept apprised of the construction progress. The relevant documentation is kept at the corporate headquarters in Houston. Once the home has been completed, the total cost, including in-kind donations, is tabulated. If the veteran plans, during the building phase, to obtain a loan to pay for his or her agreed portion of the cost of the house (and land, if the veteran so chose), then the veteran is obligated to apply for a mortgage. Any VA housing grant that is awarded at the time the veteran takes title to the new home is also used to pay for the construction, in addition to the veteran's minimum $50,000 payment. If necessary, HAH may advance the VA grant funds during the building phase and will be repaid upon completion of the construction when the VA grant is awarded. HAH donates up to $100,000 of the construction cost of the house. HAH holds a "Welcome Home Ceremony" when the home is completed and the wounded hero has closed on the property and taken title. This is described more fully in Part II of the 990. Each recipient is required to communicate at least four times per year with HAH to update the

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First Accomplishment

Each home is built to address the special adaptation standards for the veteran who will live in the home and is designed to ensure maximum independence, within budget constraints. The veteran's mortgage amount is determined at the end of the building process and is based on the required minimum $50,000 veteran investment, VA grants, HAH grants, upgrades, and any excess costs of the land. The home is recorded at cost plus any in-kind donations from the builder or other sources. The Organization has awarded home grants in 22 states.

The Organization conducts a groundbreaking ceremony before the construction of a new home for the wounded warrior. The ceremony allows the Organization to introduce the wounded warrior and his or her family to the community, educate the community about the needs of the wounded warrior, educate other businesses about the opportunity for giving back to wounded warriors, and honor the wounded warrior for his or her service.

The Organization has a welcome home ceremony when the home is completed and the wounded hero has taken ownership and is ready to move in. These included guest check-in, helping to setup for the silent auction, checking out after the event, and ensuring the events run smoothly.
