Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	Part I, Line 2 - Procedures for Monitoring the Use of Grant FundsInitial Screening & SelectionOnce a potential grant applicant applies for aide, they are screened by phone or email to evaluate their initial eligibility. Eligibility requirements are 70% or greater disabled, as rated by the VA and verifiable service in the Global War on Terror (GWOT). After the initial screening, a formal written application must be submitted. The application includes a formal application, the applicants "DD-214" (Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty), photos, and VA eligibility documents. The written applications and documentation are reviewed and verified by the Application Committee, the Board then decides which of the applicants will receive a home. Some applicants are intially "deferred" and may become selected later if additional resources become available. At HaH's Annual Gala, recipients are the guests of honor and each receives a symbolic "House Key" in a presentation ceremeony. The documentation for the grants is kept at the corporate headquarters in Houston Home BuildingThe next stage is selecting the lot and buidler for the home. Several communities in the veteran's preferred geographic area are scouted and two to three communities are identified by HAH for lot availability. In an ideal world, the developer donates the lot in a master planned community. Where no master planned communities exist, HAH endeavors to roll the loan price into the project price, often a smaller house must be constructed to offset the expense of the lot. Alternatively, the veteran may opt to purchase a lot of their own choosing. HAH refines the selection based on veteran preference as to which lot works best. HAH then identifies a buidler willing to construct a home on the chosen lot and obtains a home floor plan that can be modified to meet the adaptability creteria and is within budget. Once the floor plan has been modified based on the veteran's needs, a review occurs with the veteran where additional modifications can be made as needed. Again, the veteran is very involved in this stage of the process. Once the decisions about lot, buidler, and floor plan have been made, the veteran is sent a formal offer letter listing the details of their home offer for approval. Once the offer letter is signed and returned, the physical building process begins. The first event is that HAH acquires the land. Once HAH has acquired the land, a "Ground Breaking" ceremony is held on the land. This is described in more detail in Part III of the 990. Where the VA specially Adapted Housting (SAH) grant will be used, VA regulations are followed to ensure adaptions meet strict VA SAH standards. The floor plans are adapted to comply with these standards before construction starts. Upon completion, these adaptations are verified by an SAH inspector from the VA. HAH donates up to $100,000 of the cost of the house. In many cases, the buidler and sub-contractors will donate their materials and services towards the overall cost of the house. An important component of the construction process is regular visits by HAH personnel to ensure that the buidler and sub-contractors stay in compliance with the applicable standards. The wounded warrior is also kep apprised of the home's progress. The relevant documentation is kept in the corporate headquarters in Houston. Once the home has been completed, the total cost, including in-kind donations, is tabulated. During the build process, the veteran is obliated to apply for a mortgage of at least $50,000. If the veteran is eligible for the SAH grant, another $67,555 is available from a VA grant that becomes available once the veteran occupies his or her new home. Often HAH advances the VA grant funds during the build and repaid upon completion of the construction. HAH holds a "Welcome Home Ceremony" when the home is completed and the wounded hero is ready to move in. This is described more fully in Part II of the 990. Each recipient is required to communicate at least fourtimes per year with HAH to update the Organization about his or her current situation. Again, relevant documentation is kept in the corporate headquarters in Houston.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First Accomplishment	The actual mortgage amount is determined at the end of the building process and is based on the minimum required $50,000 veteran investment, plus any upgrades selected by the veteran over the maximum $100,000 cash contribution by the Organization and any excess cost of land. Each home is built to address the special adaptation standards for the veteran who will live in the home and is designed to ensure maximum independence, within budget constraints. The home is recorded at cost plus any in-kind donations from the builder or other sources. During 2015 there were $309,428 in-kind donations that are added to the cost of homes under construction in 2015. The Organization has awarded homes in 22 states. The Organization conducts a groundbreaking ceremony before the construction of a new home for the wounded warrior. The ceremony allows the Organization to introduce the wounded warrior and his, or her, family to the community, educate the community about the needs of the wounded warrior, educate other businesses about the opportunity for giving back to wounded warriors, and honor the wounded warrior for his or her service. The Organization has a welcome home ceremony when the home is completed and the wounded hero is ready to move in. The ceremony allows the Organization to thank all the vendors who have donated time or products to the home as well as to educate the community about the adaptation needs that this wounded hero has as a result of his or her permanent injuries.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Second Accomplishment	The caregivers, primarily spouses and parents, face the 24/7 day to day challenges of supporting our wounded warriors. They are often overlooked and unappreciated. The Organization organizes and offers retreats that provide encouragement, fun, pampering, and camaraderie for these caregivers. The wounded warriors have often been in the military since high school and do not know what it takes to sustain a household in the civilian world. The Organization helps them develop and make better financial decisions. Emergency Needs and Recreation Support - The Organization provides ongoing support for wounded warriors and their families, with priority given to home recipients. This support includes financial support, sports events, fishing and hunting outings, rodeos, Operation Merry Christmas, and others. Over 300 wounded warriors receive assistance.
